CHILDREN ONE AND ALL

Some of us live in big white houses,
Some of us live small
Some of our names are written on blackboards,
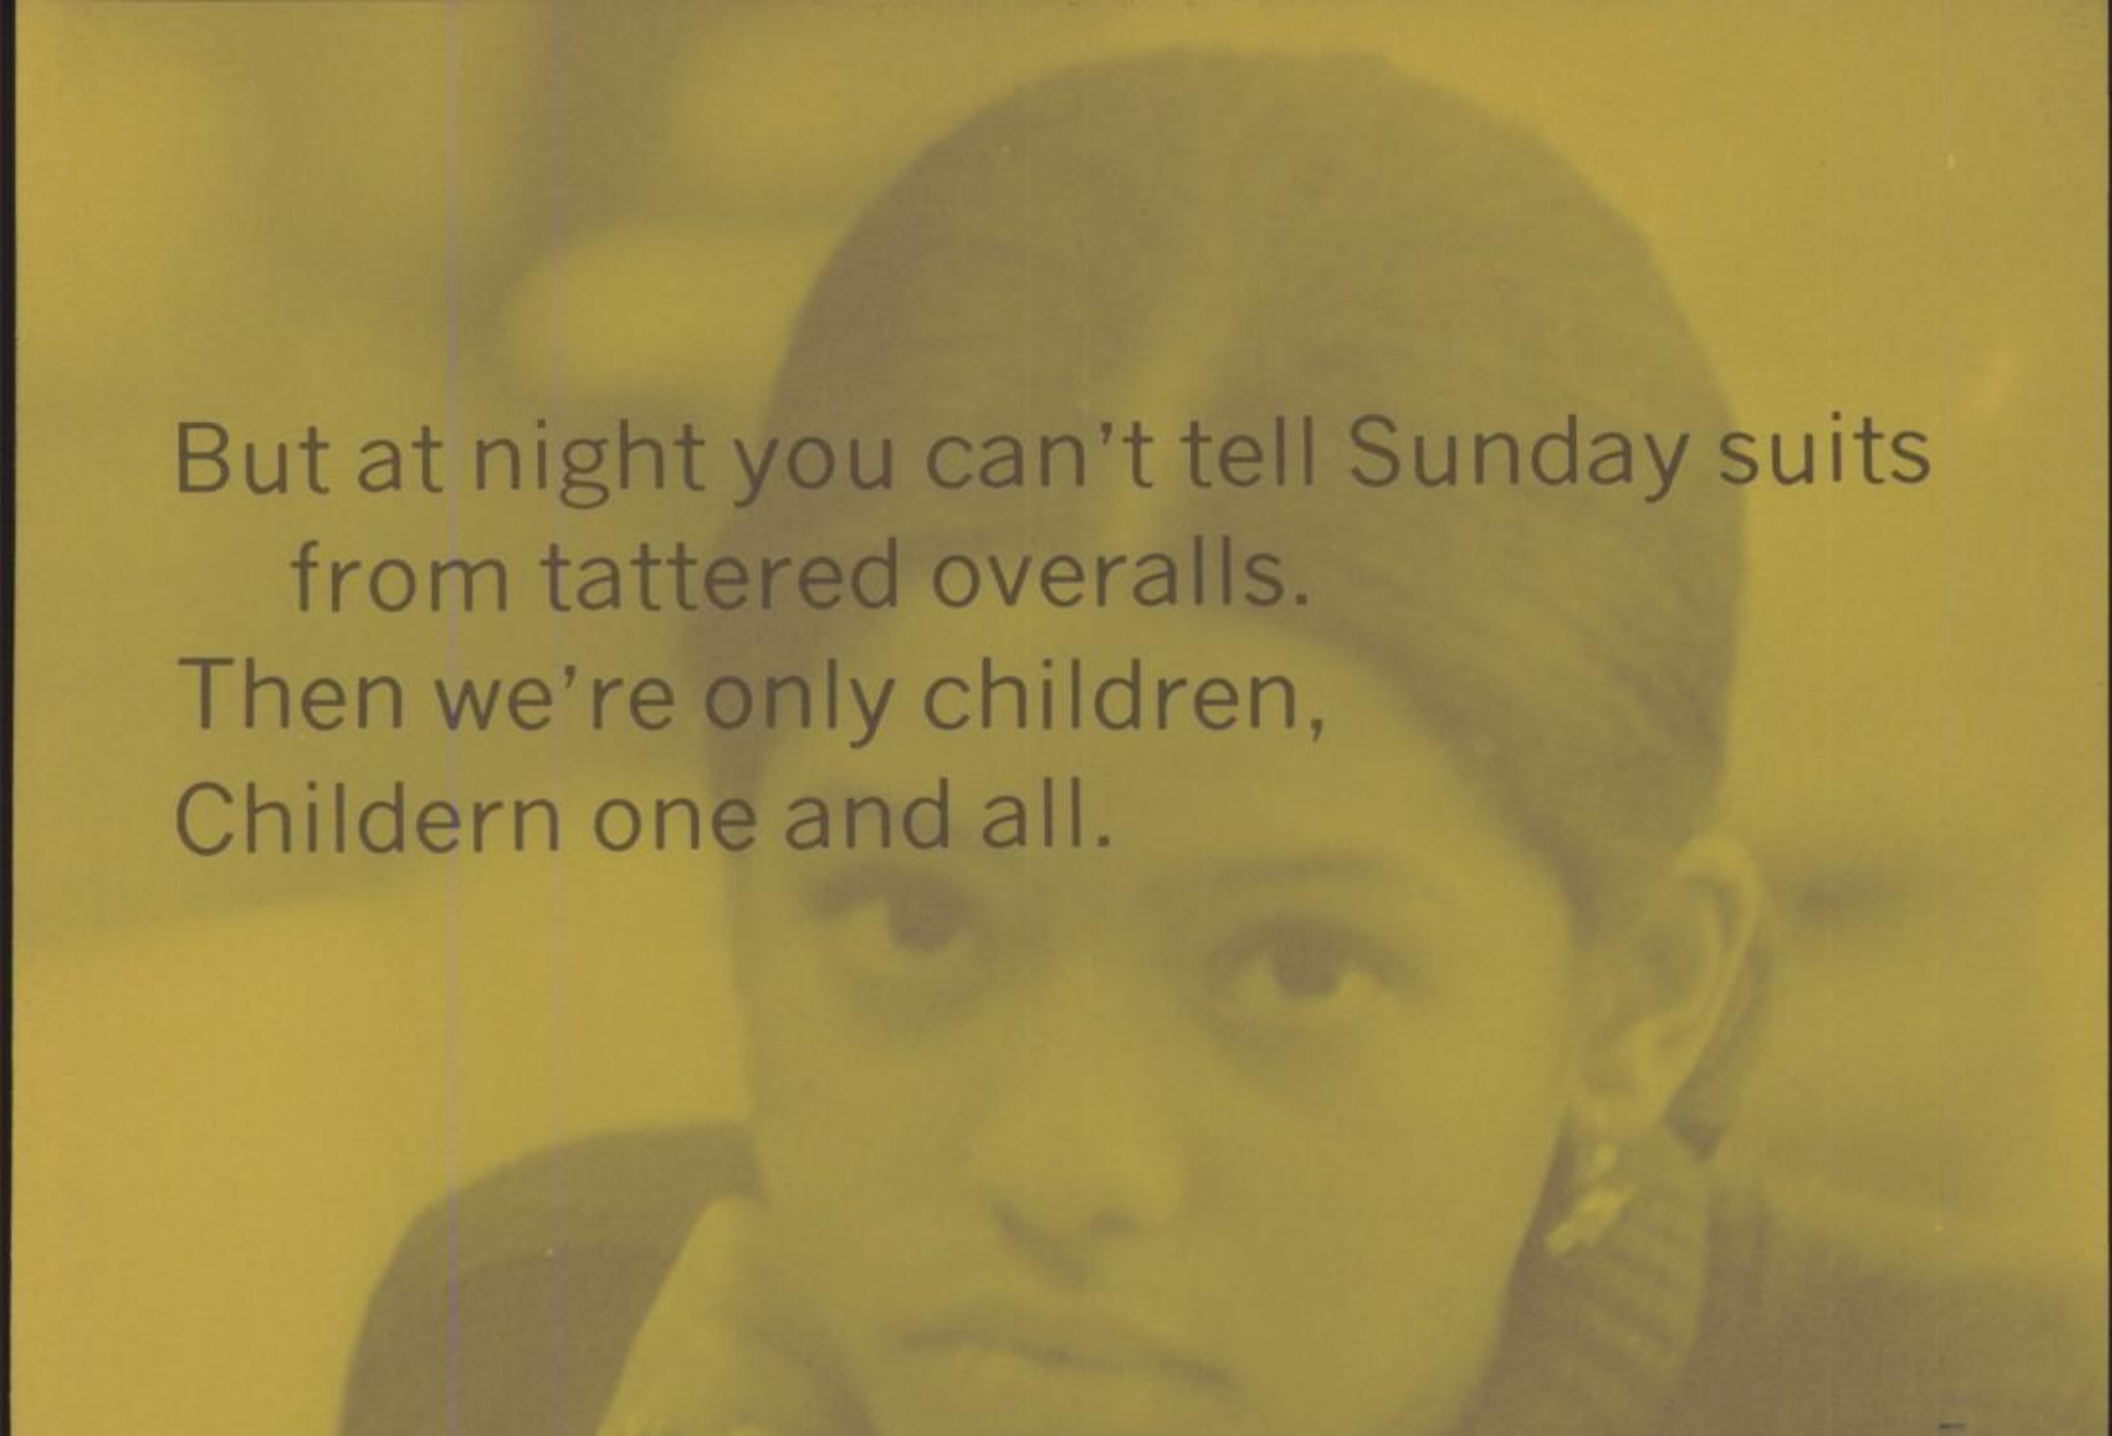
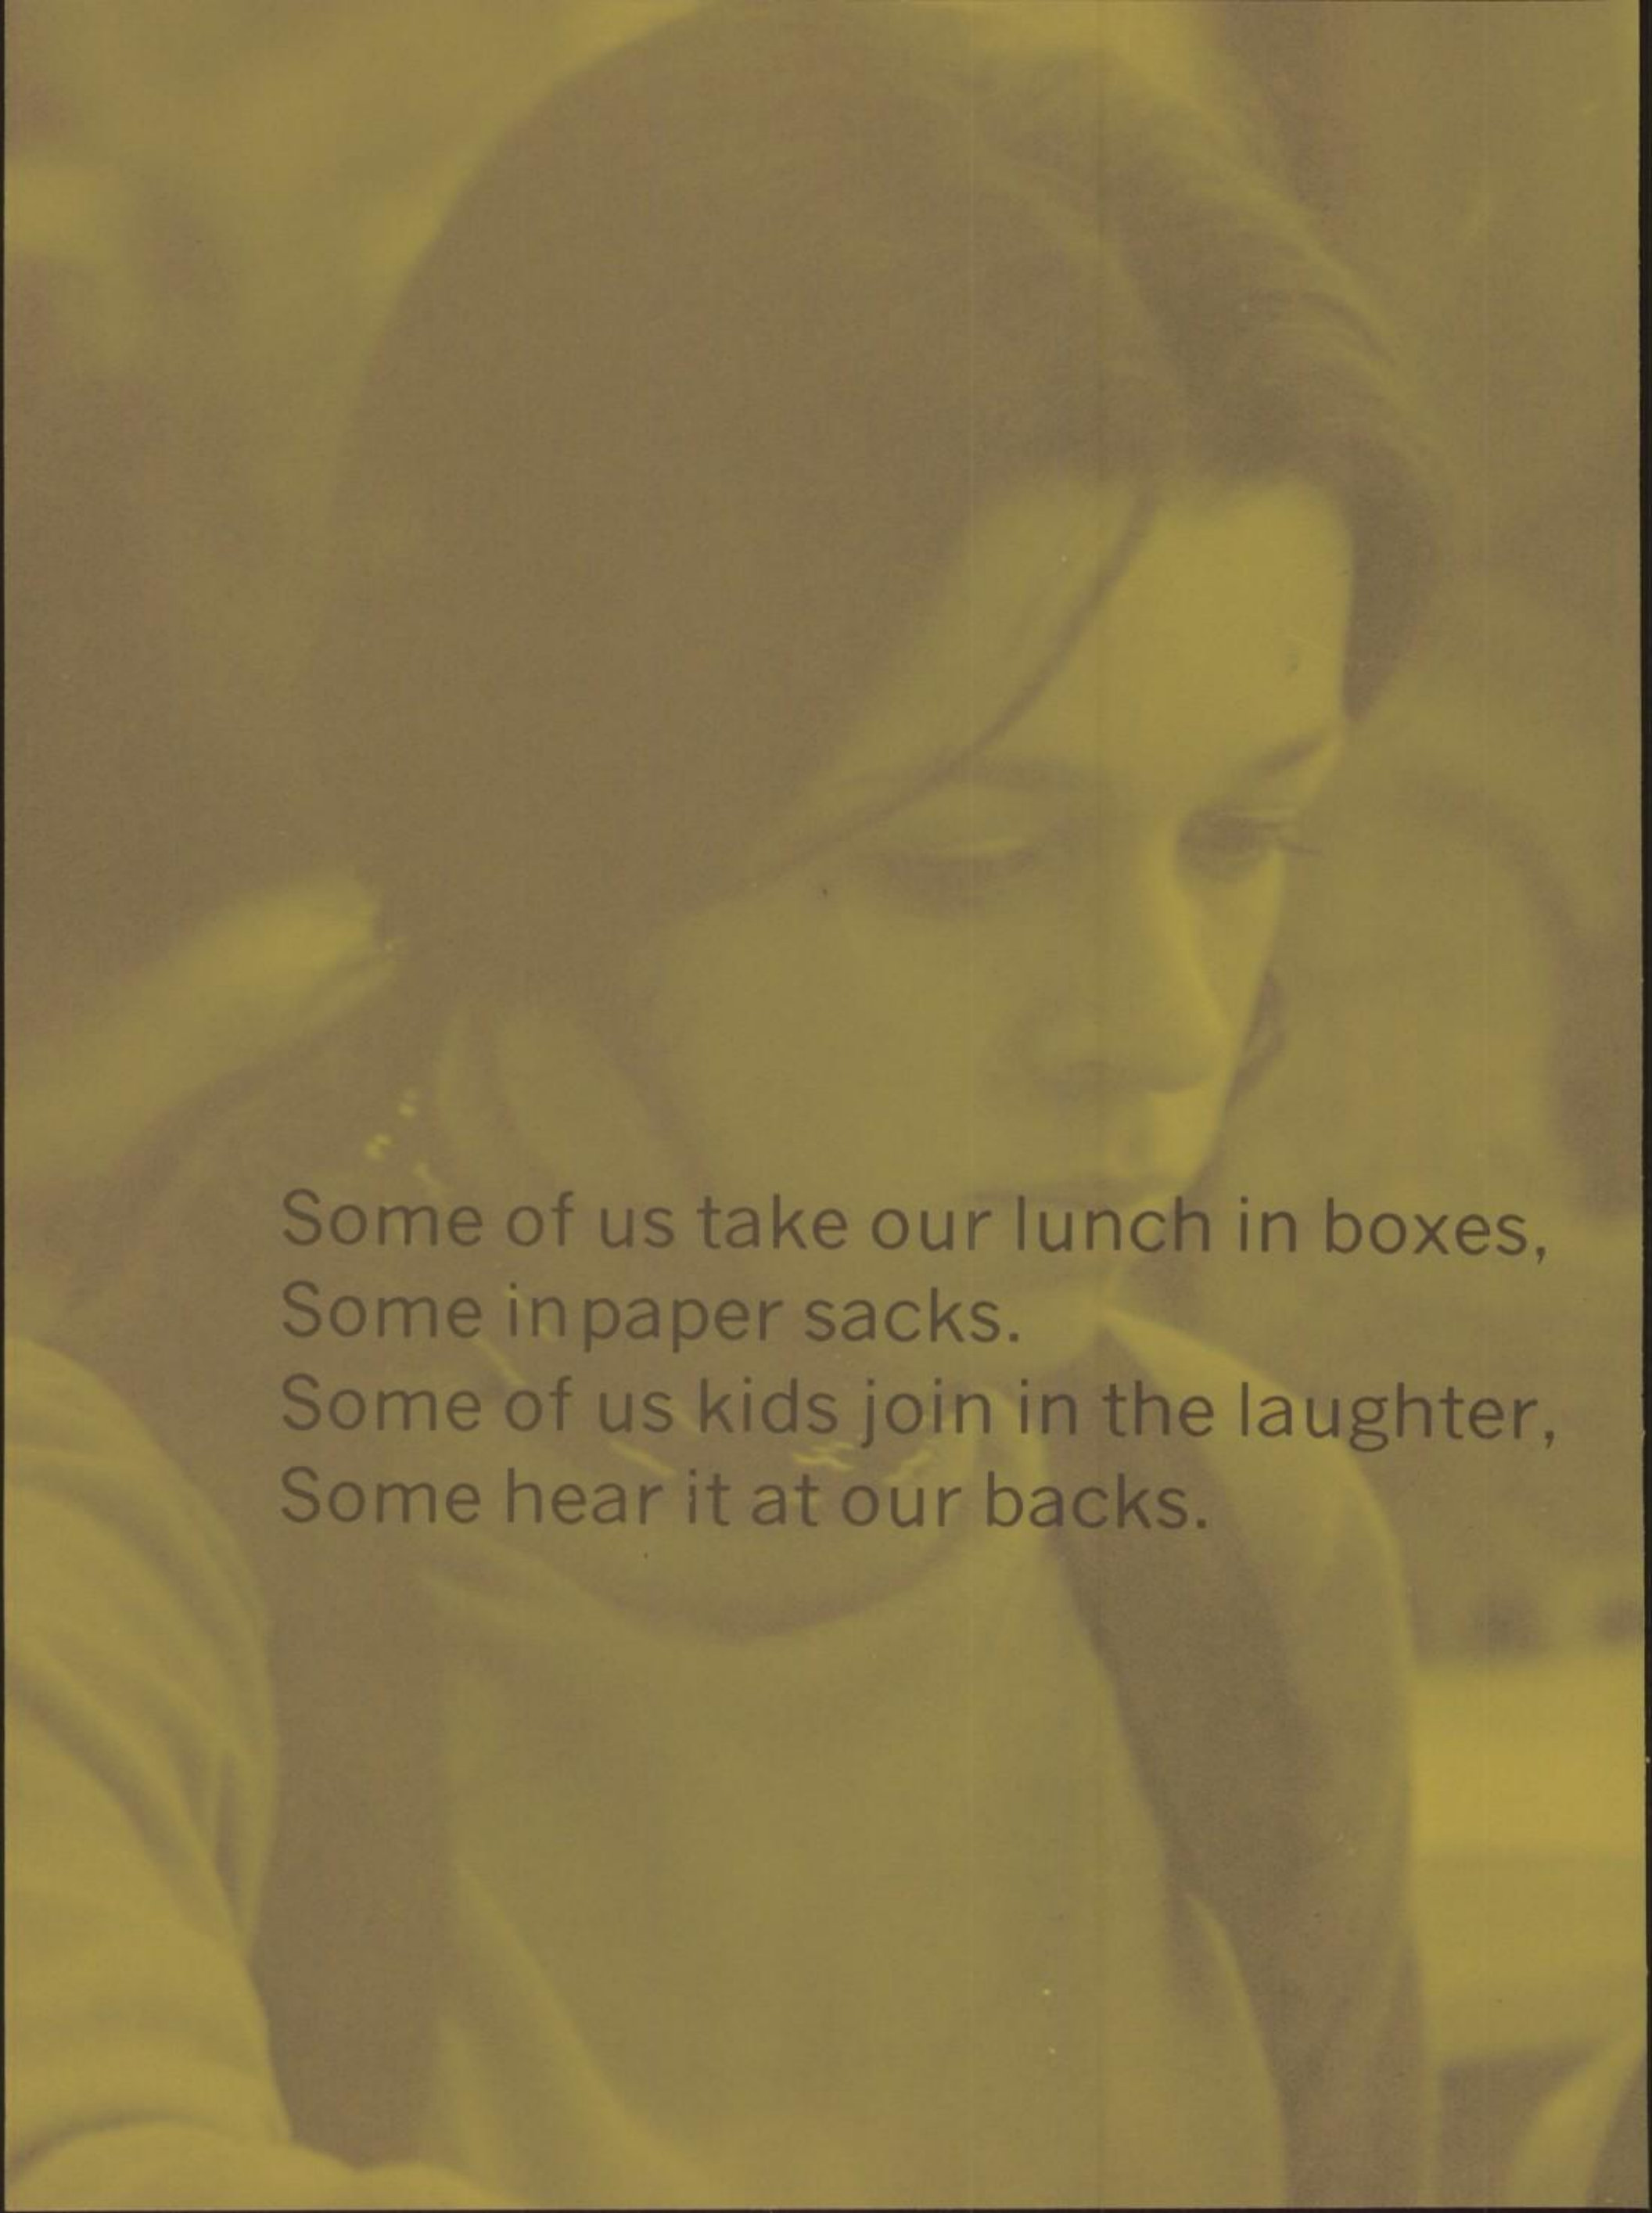
Some are written on walls.

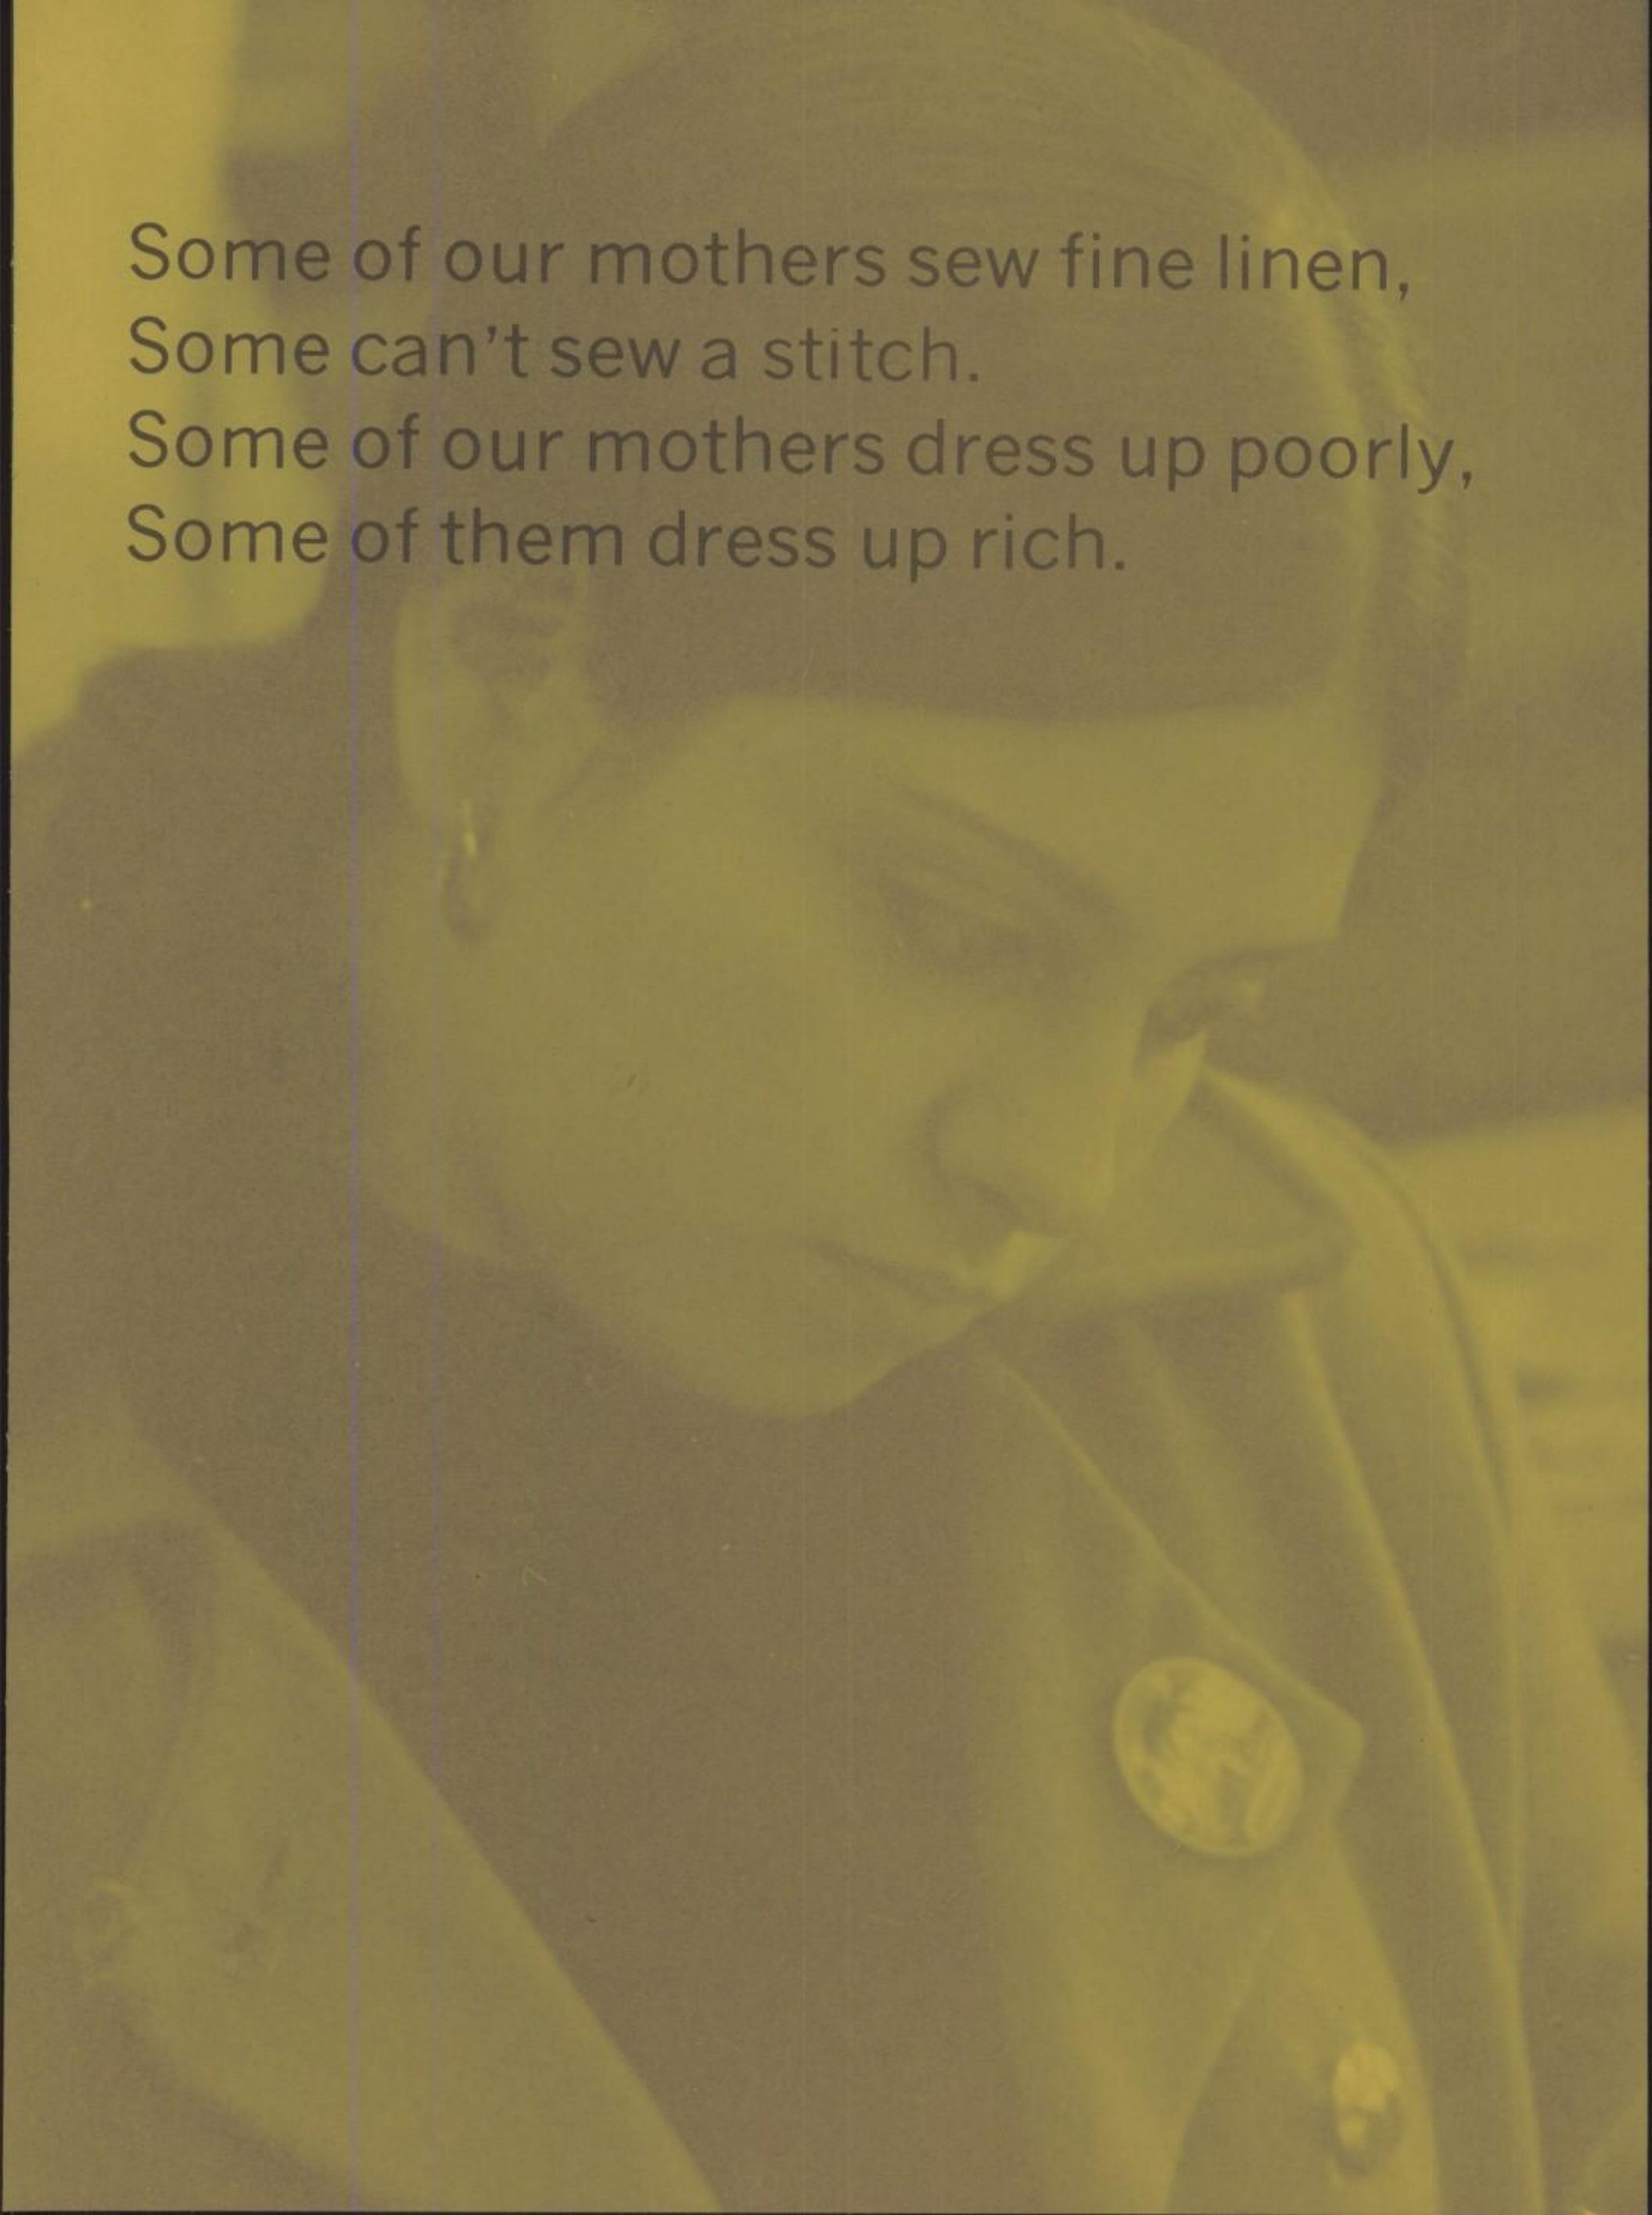
Some of our daddys work in factories,
Some of them stand in line.
Some of our daddys buy us marbles,
Some of them just buy wine.



But at night you can't tell Sunday suits
from tattered overalls.
Then we're only children,
Childern one and all.



Some of us take our lunch in boxes,
Some in paper sacks.
Some of us kids join in the laughter,
Some hear it at our backs.



Some of our mothers sew fine linen,
Some can't sew a stitch.
Some of our mothers dress up poorly,
Some of them dress up rich.

But at night you can't tell party dresses
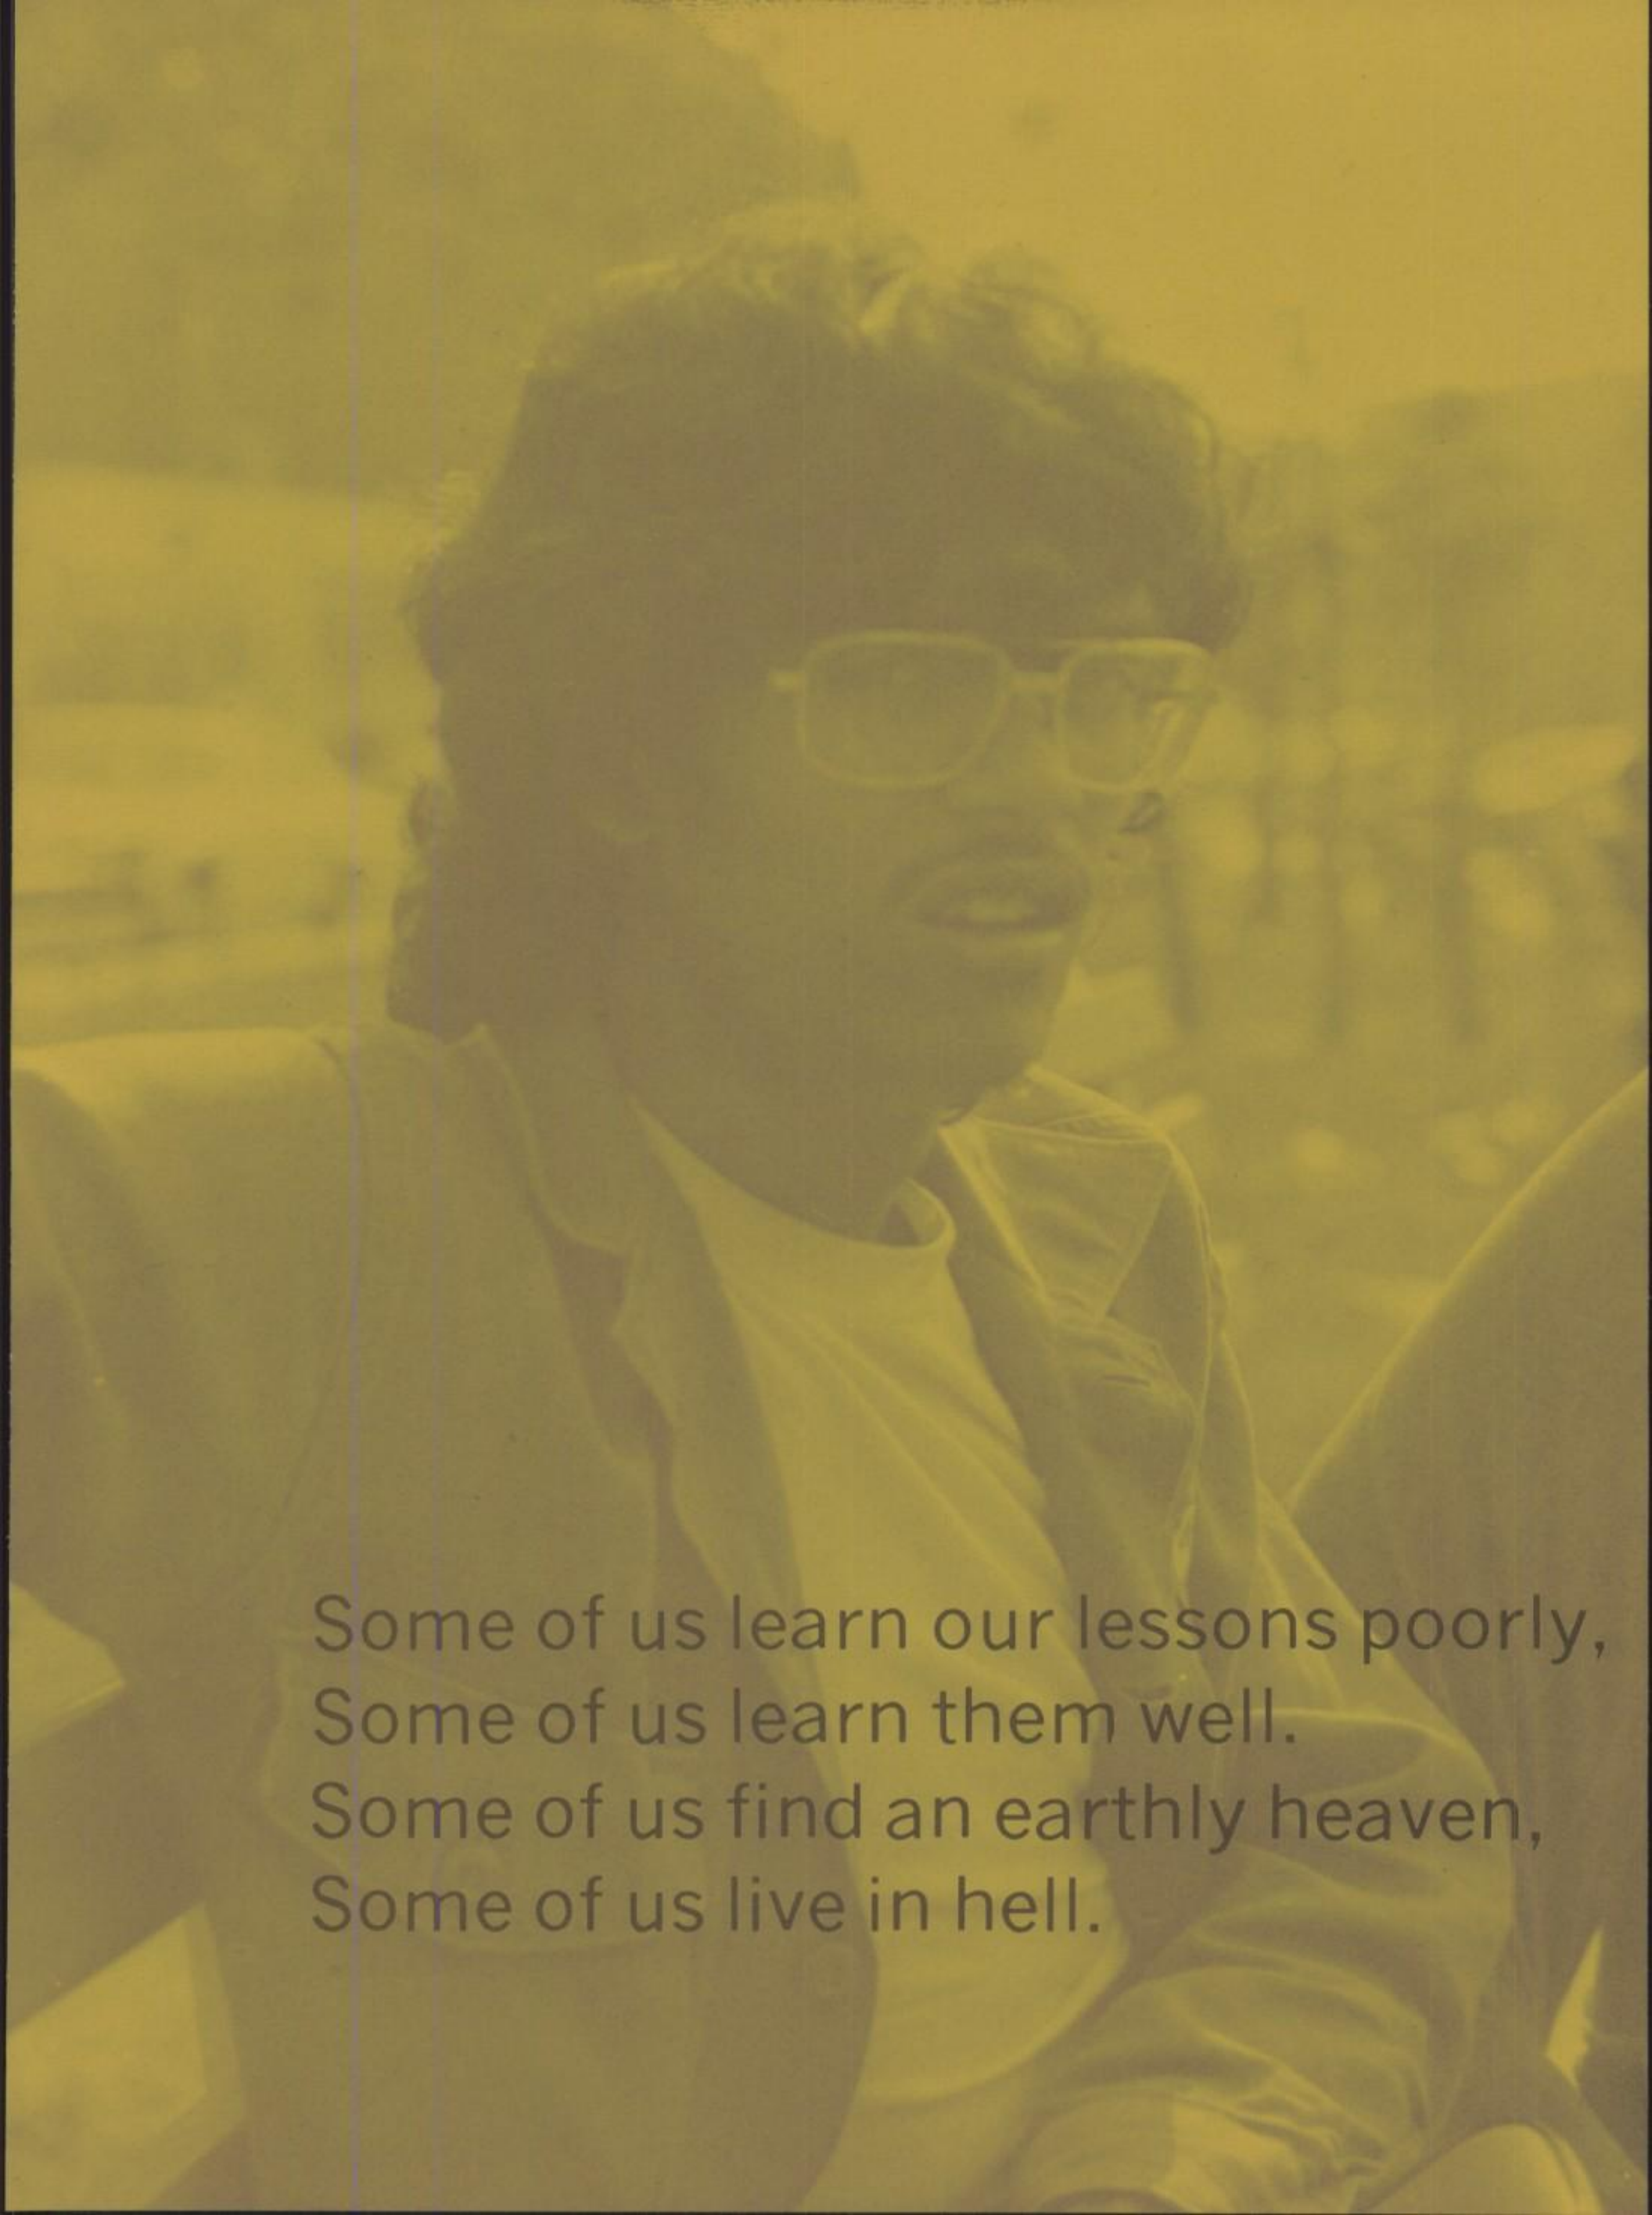
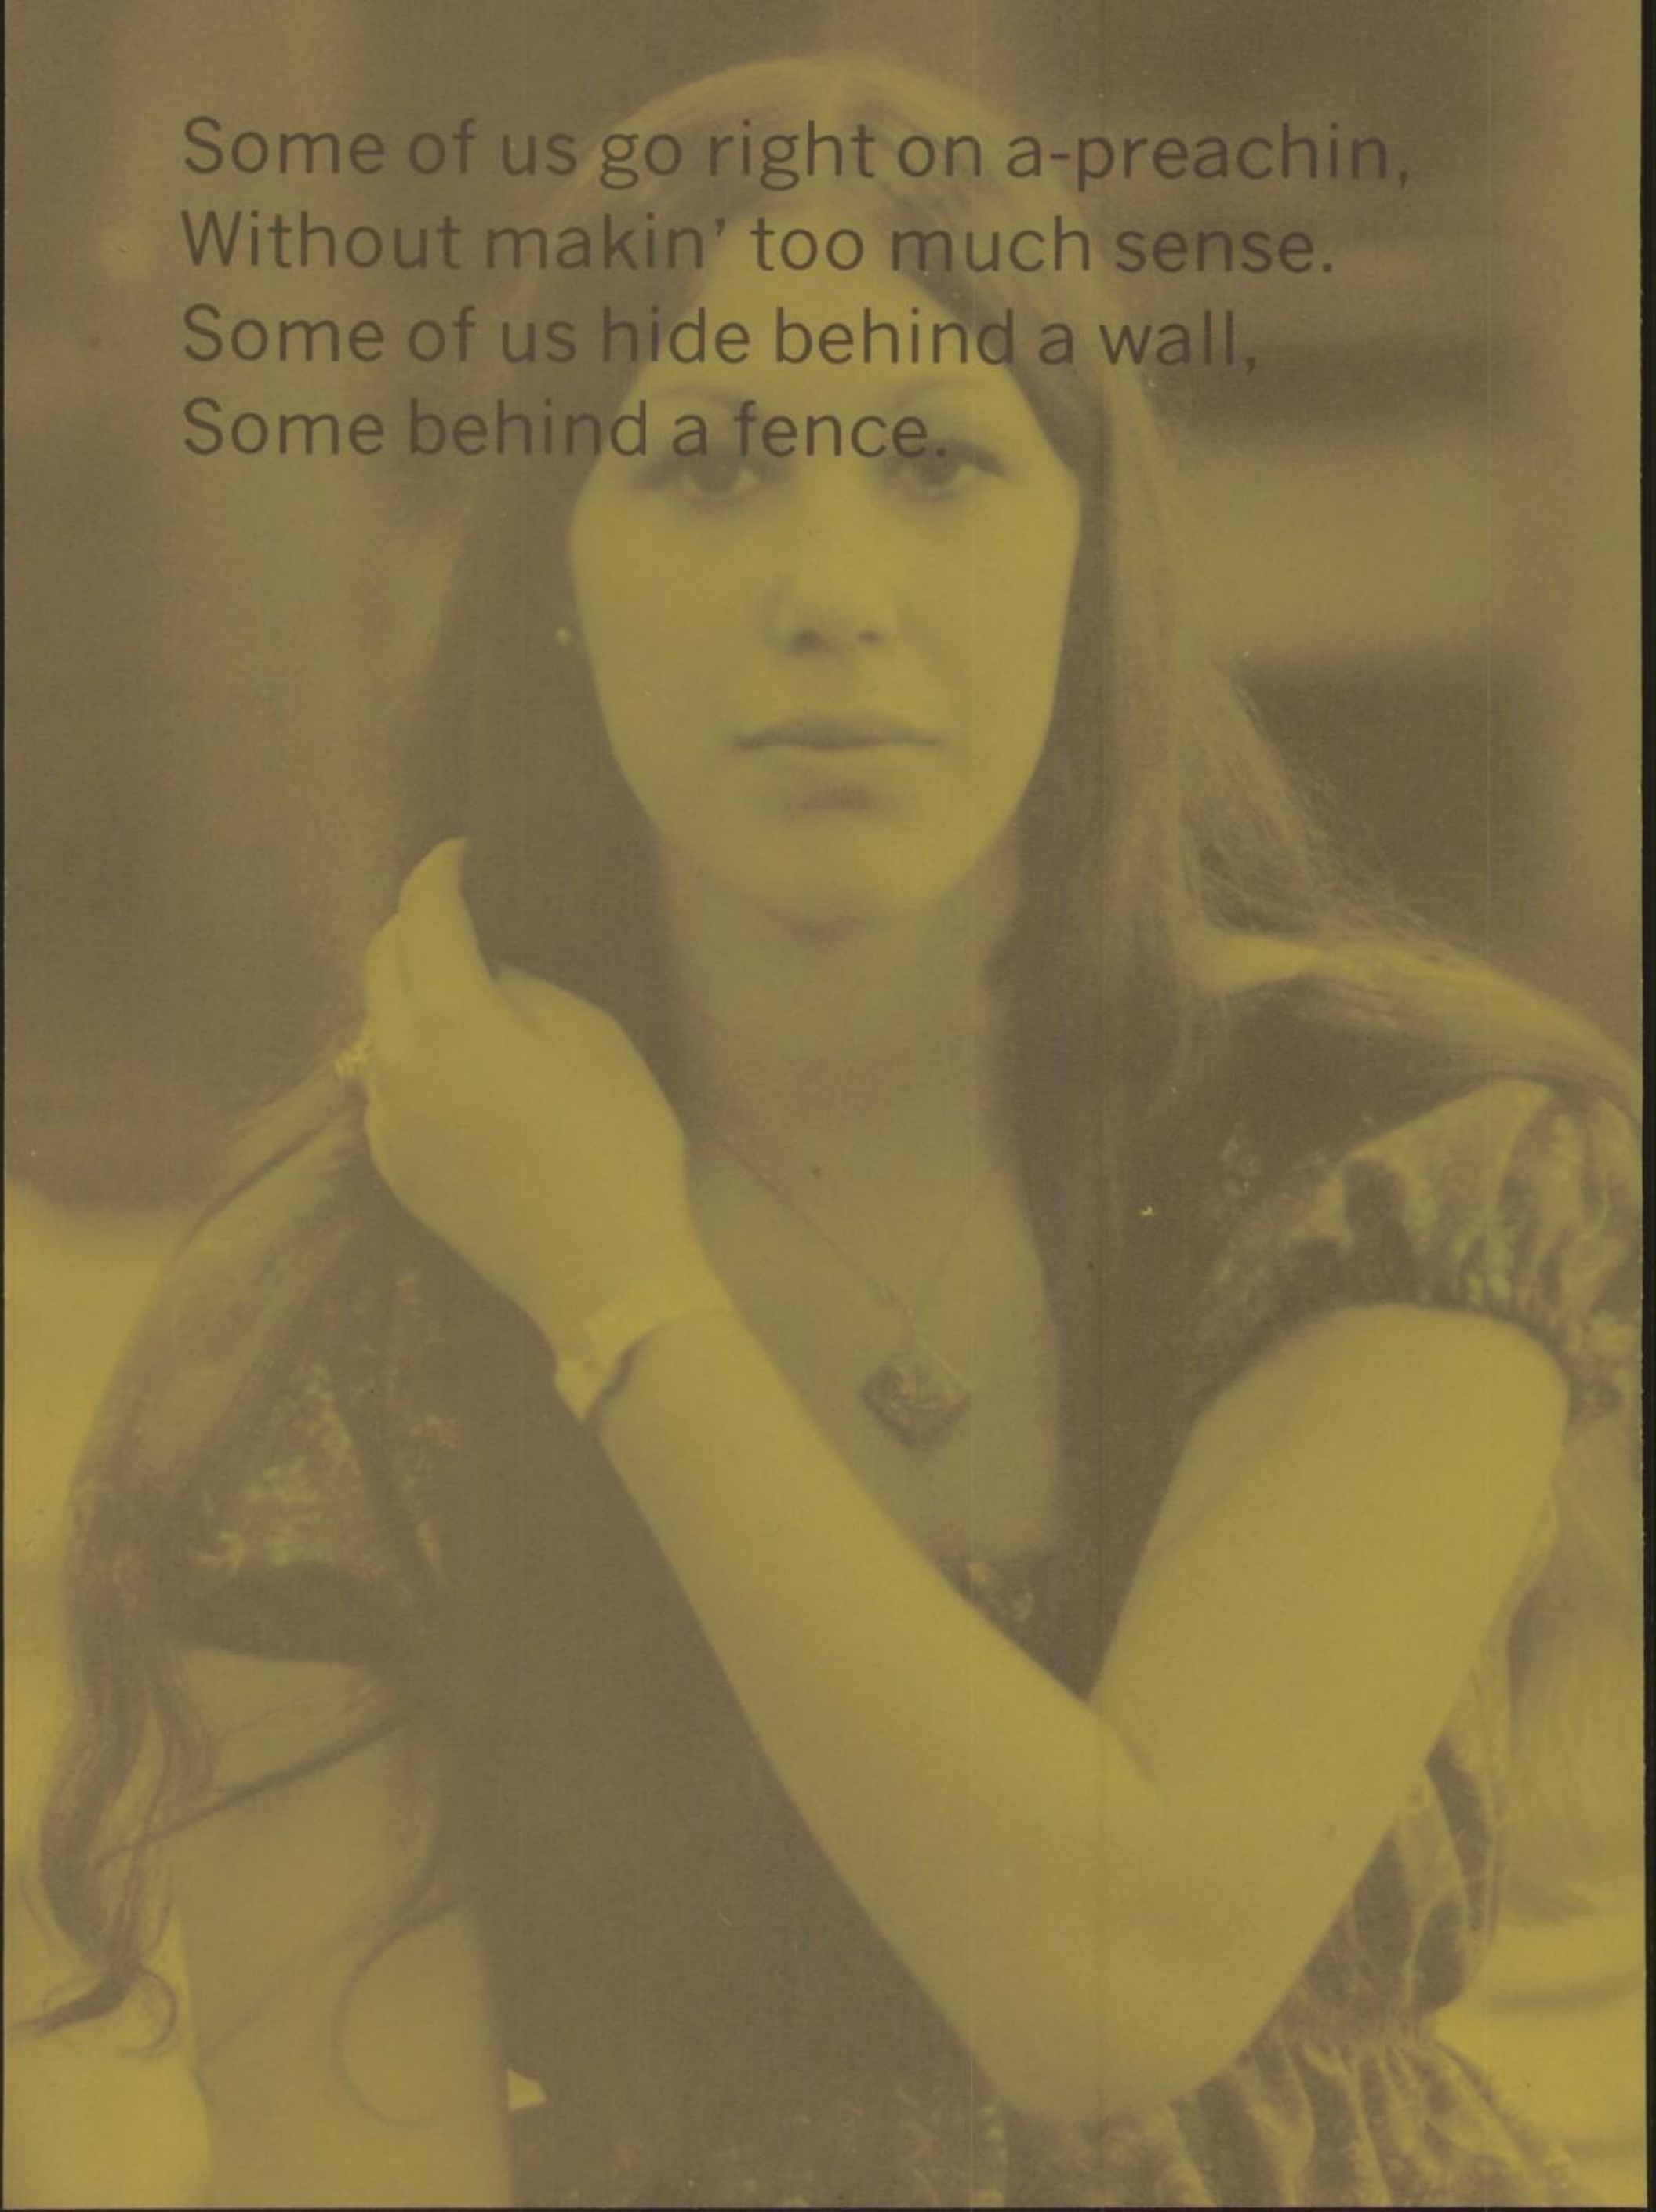
from hand-me-downs too small.
Then we're only children,
Childern one and all.



Some of us learn our lessons poorly,
Some of us learn them well.
Some of us find an earthly heaven,
Some of us live in hell.



Some of us go right on a-preachin,
Without makin' too much sense.
Some of us hide behind a wall,
Some behind a fence.

Then we're only childern,
Childern one and all.

Some of us grow up tall and handsome
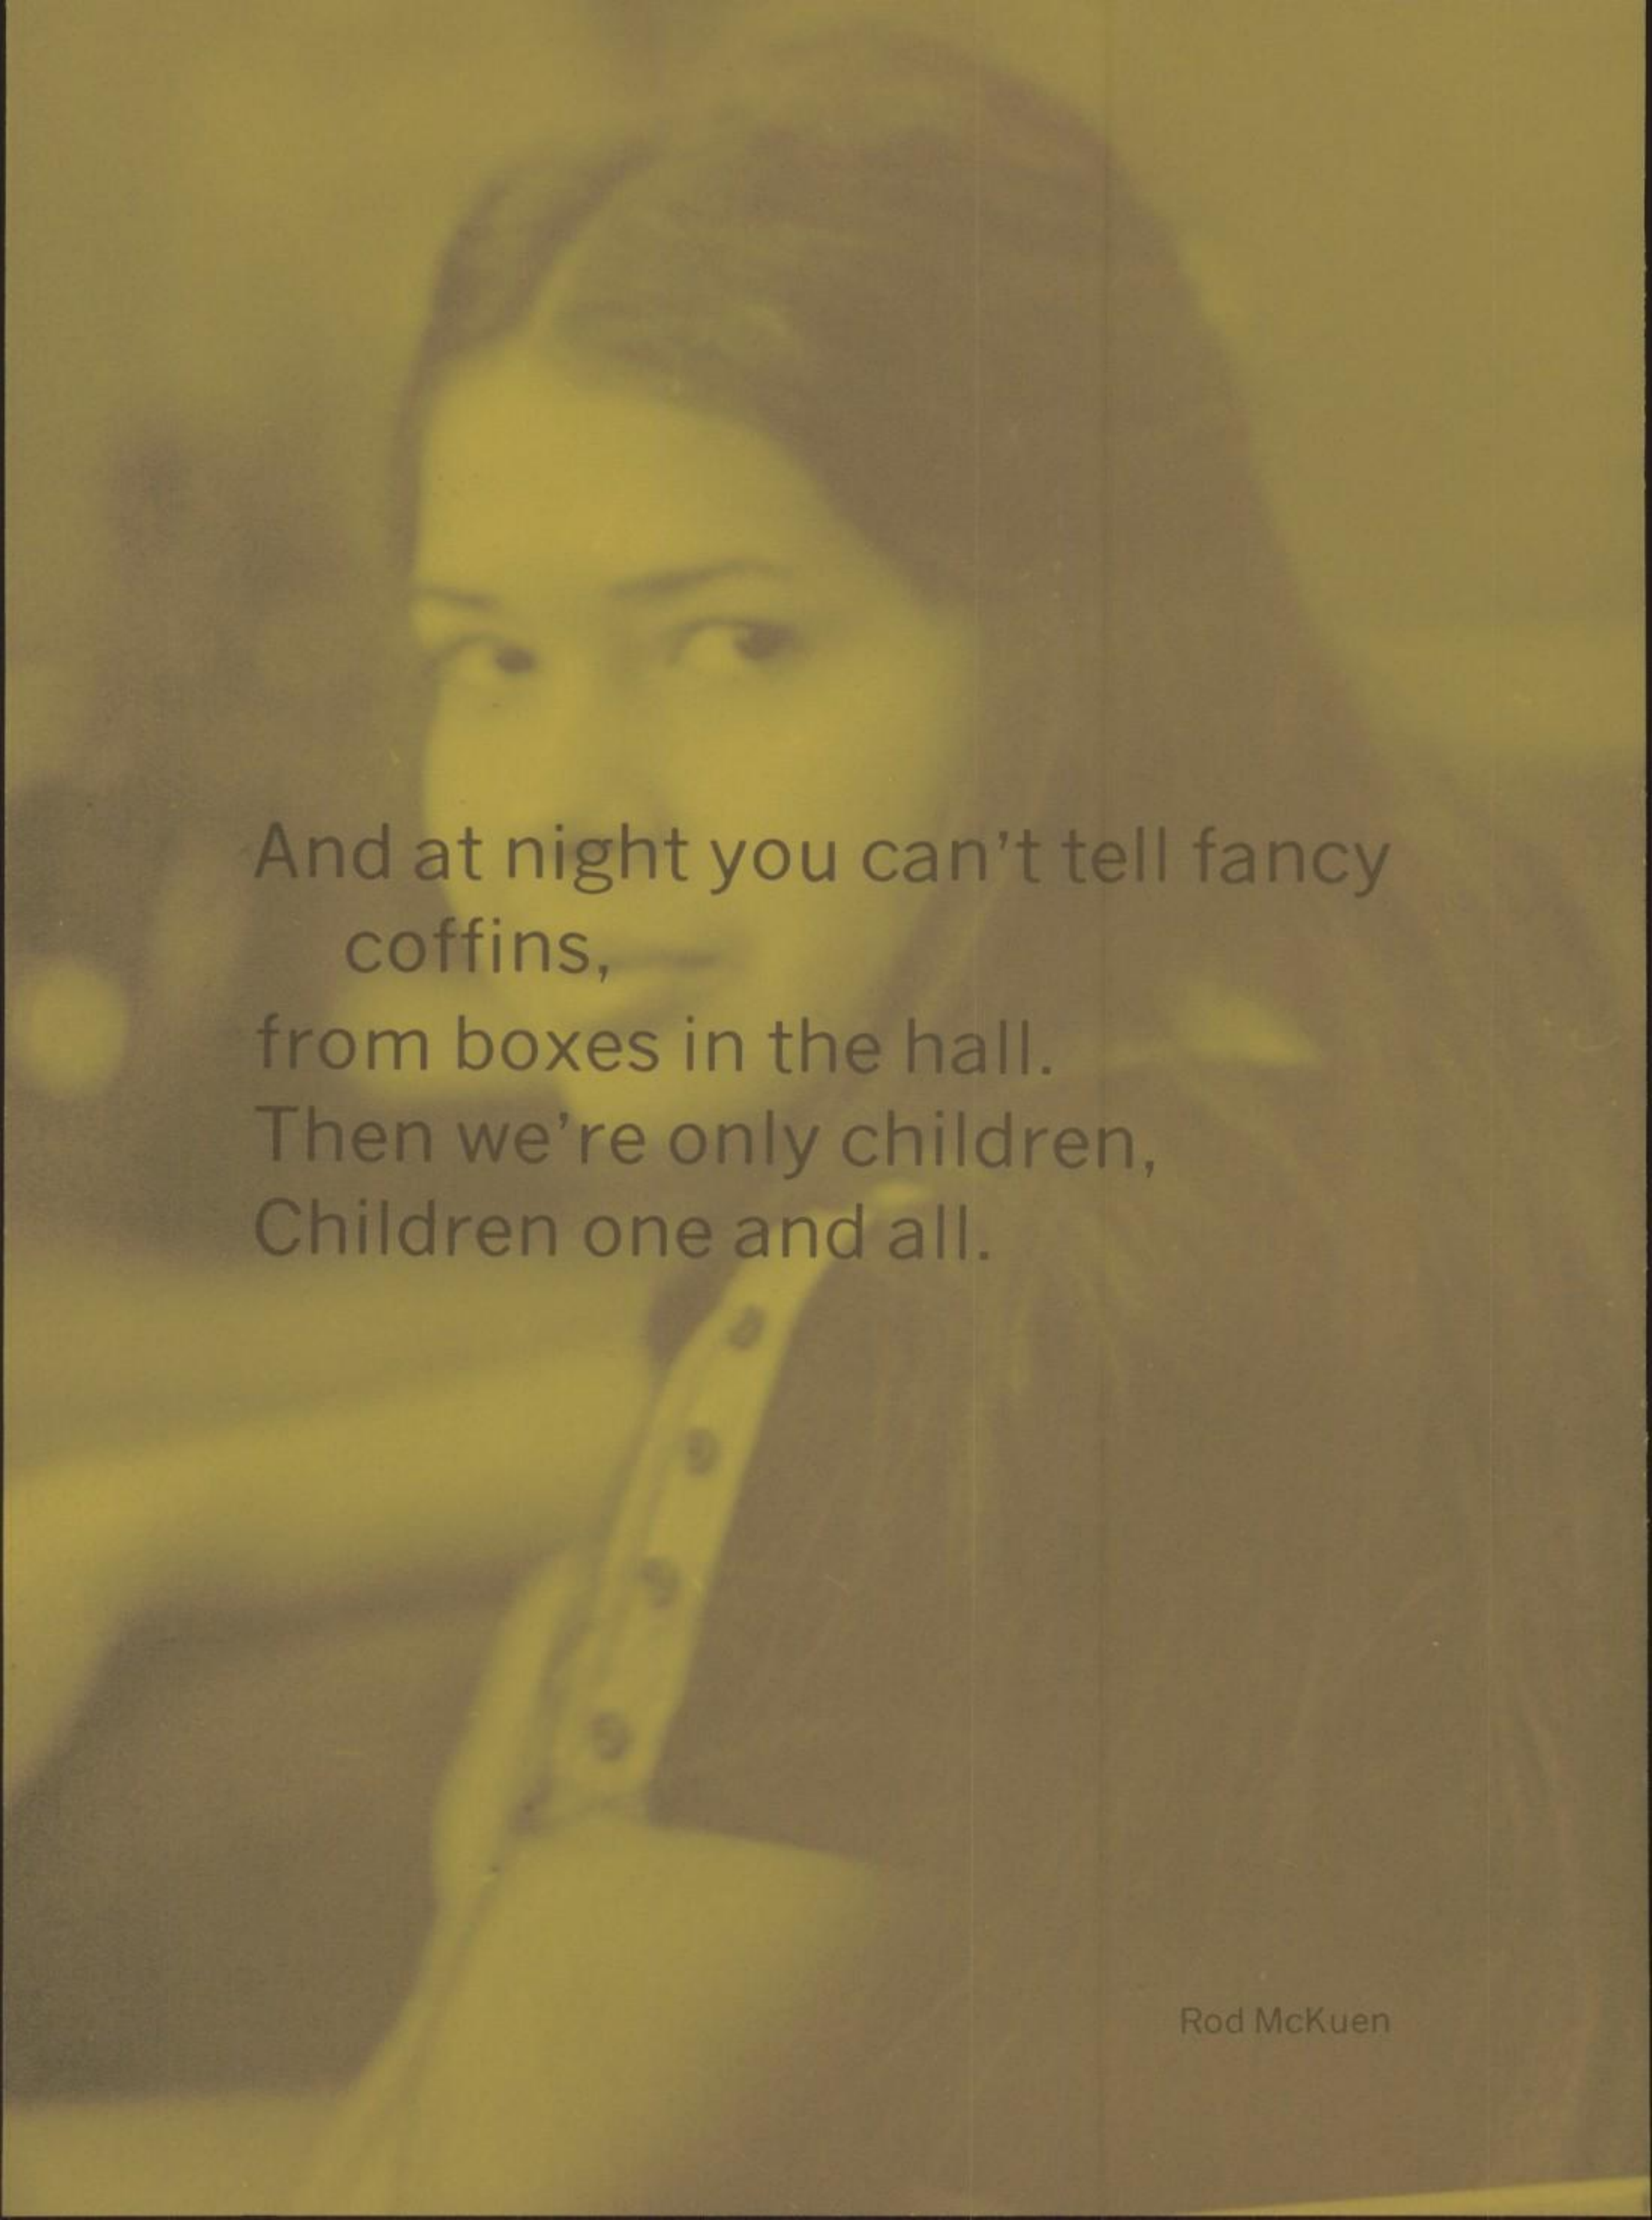
Some of us grow up plain.
Some of us own the world in ransom,
Some of us just our name.

Some of our people die in mis'ry,
Some of them die in peace.
Some of our people die for nothing,
But dying doesn't cease.



And at night you can't tell fancy
coffins,
from boxes in the hall.
Then we're only children,
Children one and all.

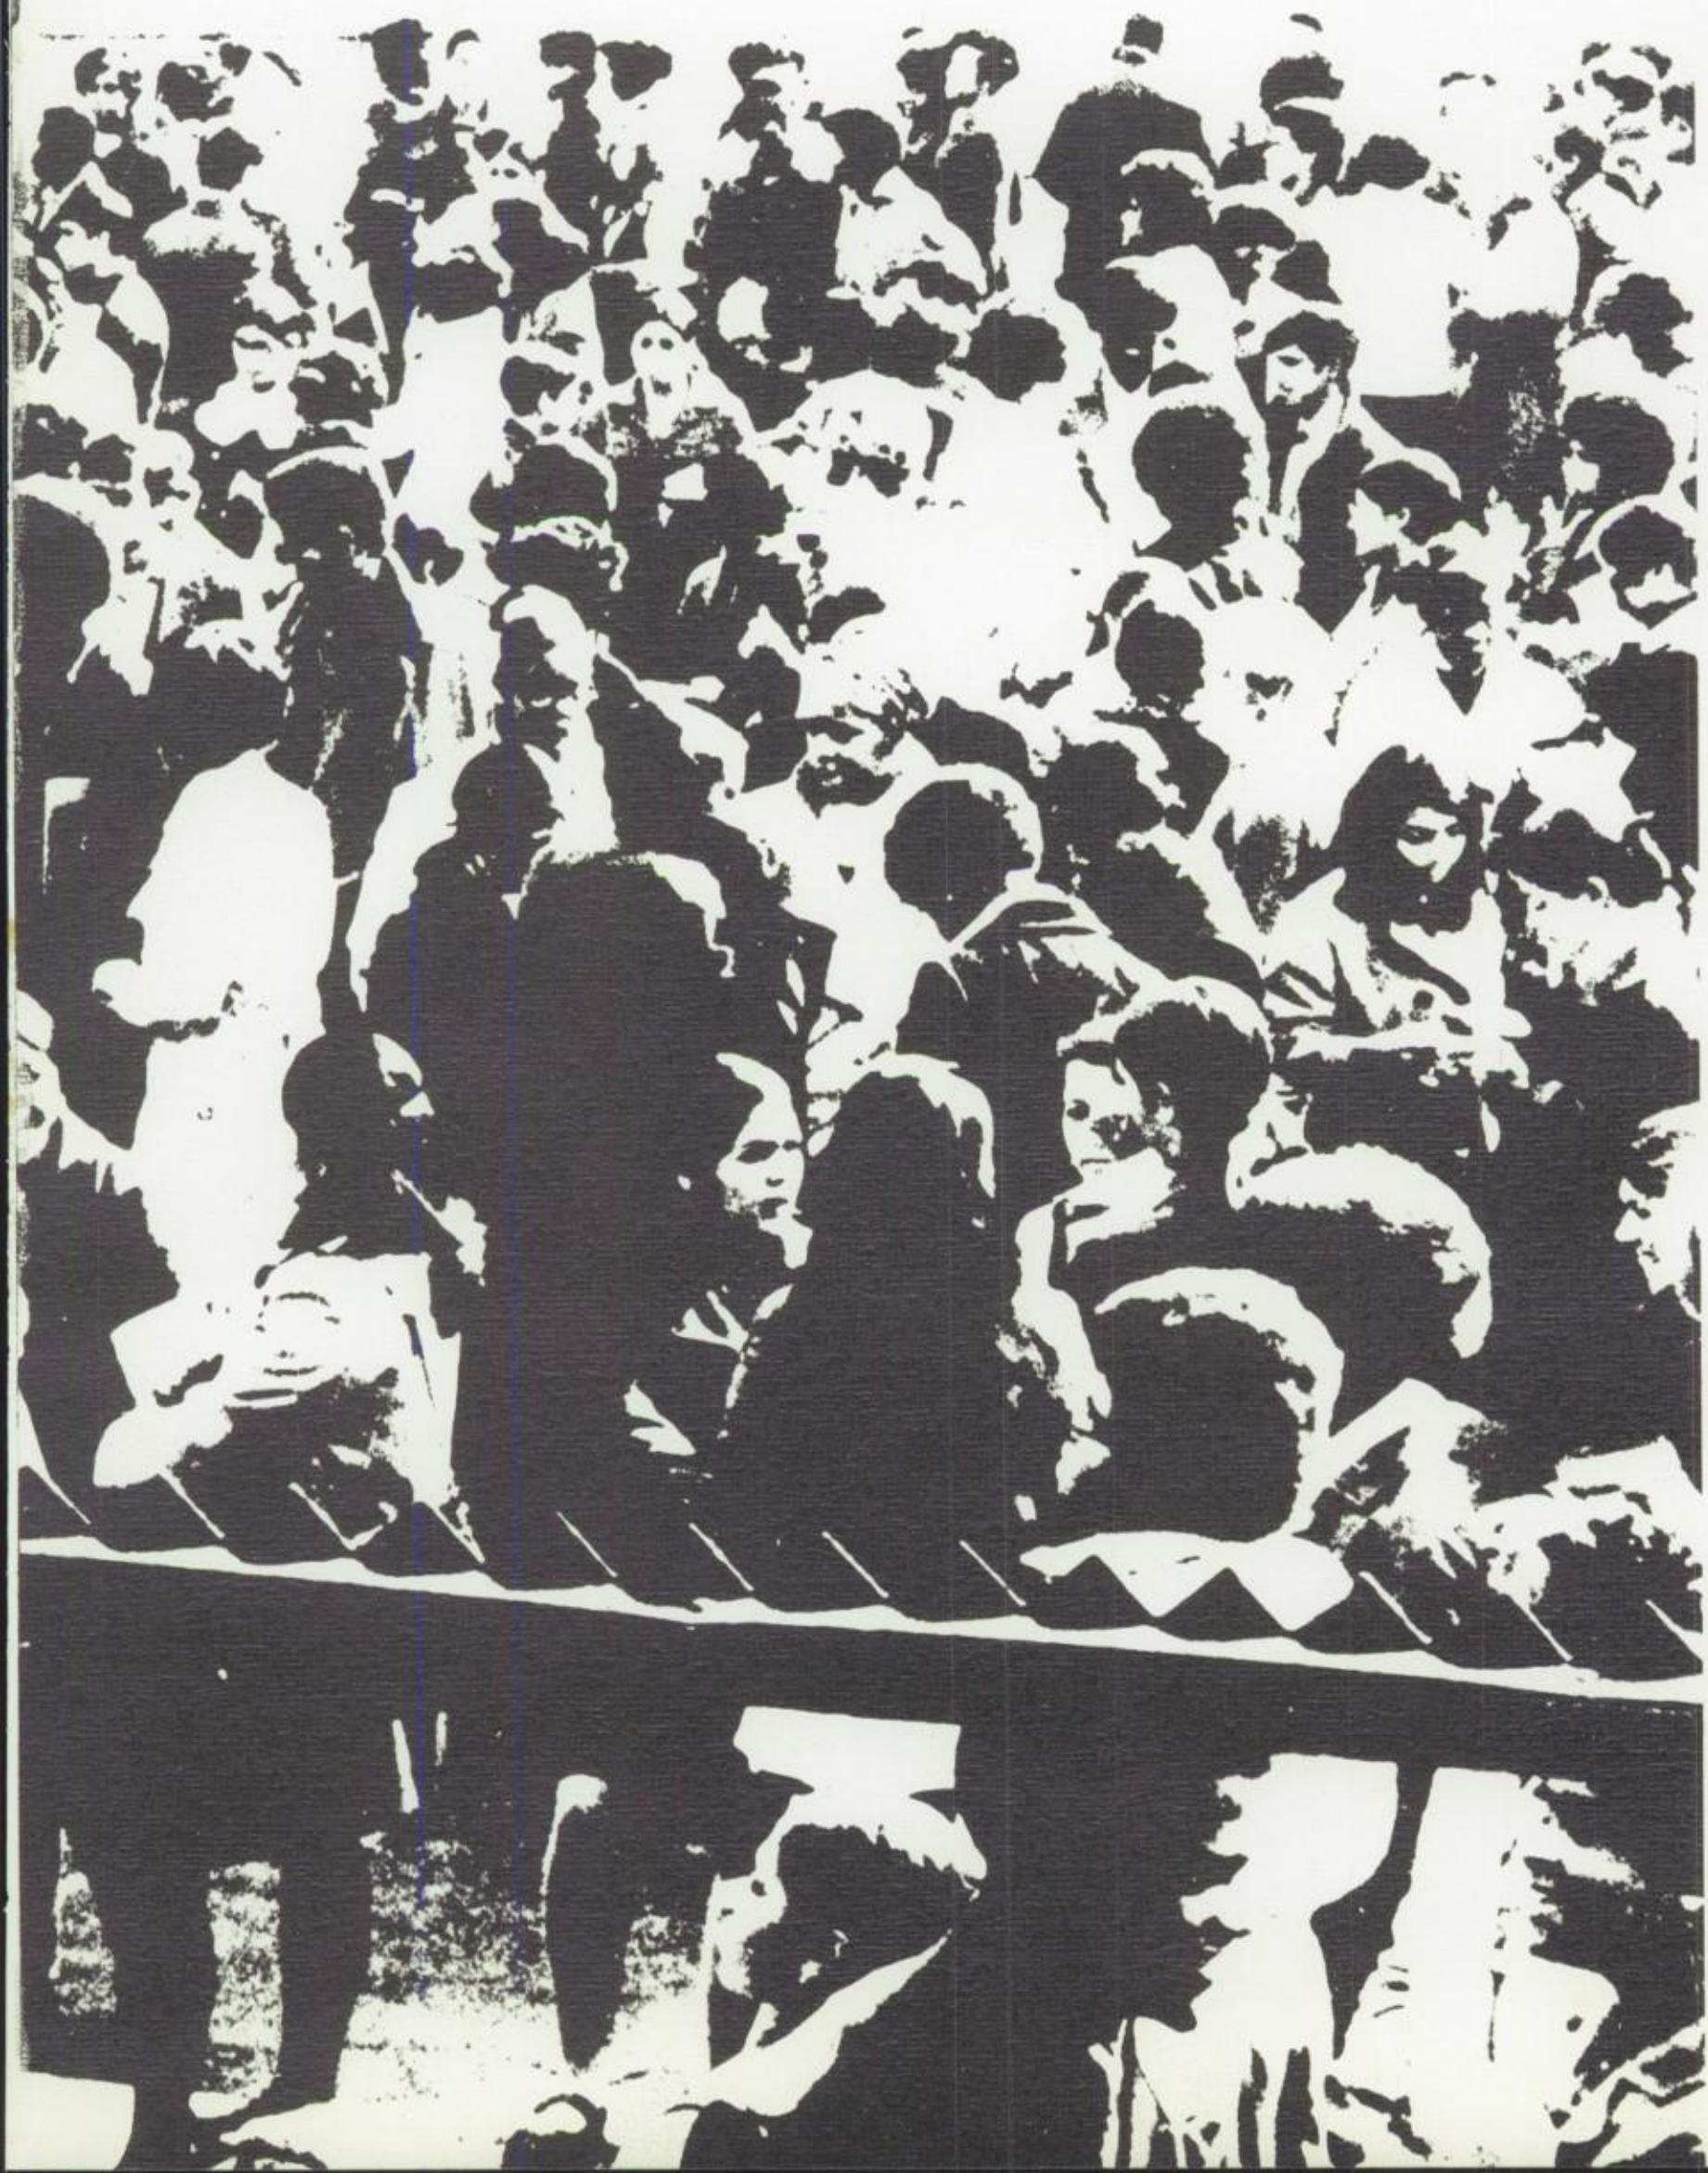
ADMINISTRATION AND SPECIAL SERVICES



MR. JOSEPH M. OXENHORN
PRINCIPAL

Dear Seniors:

A little arithmetic will show that, on the average, you have spent two-thirds of your life in school! And now you are at the end of the road in your basic education. Stop . . . "turn around" . . . look back for a minute. It has been a long, sometimes — trying, sometimes — joyous experience. And so it will be for the rest of your life.

In this world and our society, you will be subject to joy and sadness; to peace and war; to poverty and plenty. How will you face the problems of your life?

Unfortunately, the choice will not always be yours. But whenever you can make the decision, make it with care and intelligence. Avoid the quick and the easy way. And certainly, bear in mind how your decision will affect your fellow human beings. This, above all, is what education is all about.

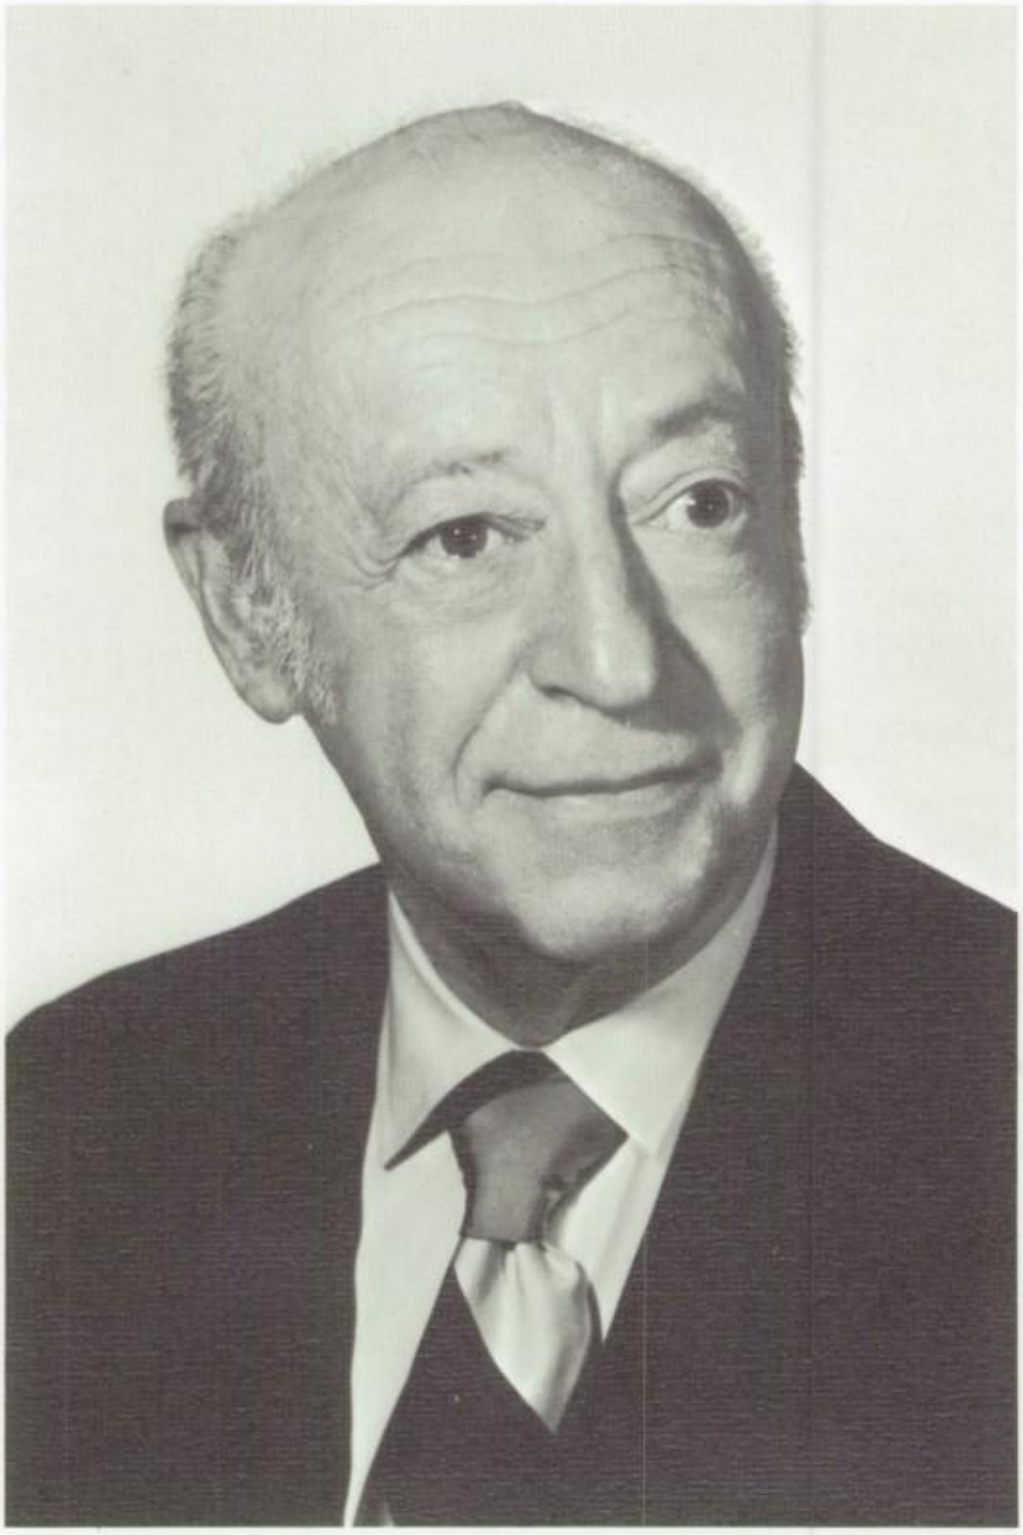
Your youth carries hope and idealism. Add hard work, education and experience, and you will have an unbeatable team.

I offer you my sincere best wishes for all the days of your years in a world of peace and human brotherhood.

Sincerely,

Sincere

Joseph M. Oxenhorn



MR. HENRY F. SALTMAN
ACTING PRINCIPAL

This is my last opportunity to talk to you as members of the graduating class. I am happy for you but it saddens me to say goodbye to a fine group such as yours. You are in a generation of many changes. Everything with which we have become familiar and comfortable is in the process of revision. Even our traditional schooling is undergoing and has undergone many changes. By the time your children attend school you, as future parents, will not recognize the courses and subjects that will be given.

Make the most of the education that you have received and on which you and all of the faculty have worked so hard. Because of that education you are now a giant step ahead of others who unfortunately left school before graduation.

I wish you well.

DAY

D.E.C.A.

Theodore Roosevelt's DECA Club competed in the 16th annual inter-school DECA contests at Fashion Institute of Technology on January 28th 1971, and as usual scored heavily in all contests.

DECA stands for the Distributive Education Clubs of America. Its main function is to develop future leaders for marketing and distribution. The DECA Club in Theodore Roosevelt has always involved itself in service to the school and the community.

The contests were; sales demonstrations, display diorama, job interview poster, public speaking. Norallys Viera, Israel Nieves, Dan Ojeda and Hector Vargas scored high in each of their respective contests. Roosevelt was competive against 20 high schools and again showed its superiority in marketing and distribution.

The club advisor is Mr. Eugene Mitchell who trained his students well.

LINCOLN CENTER FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS PERFORMS AT THEODORE ROOSEVELT

Theodore Roosevelt played host to the Lincoln Center for The Performing Arts Student Program during the 1970-1971 school year. The program focuses on young people, by exposing them to the high standards of artistic excellence through live performances. It is designed to help young people form discriminating tastes, and to develop esthetic awareness and perception.

The programs performed at Roosevelt included: Music and Dance International, Violin and Piano recital, Antigone, The New York City Ballet, and the opera Madame Butterfly. Audience participation at each performance was limited to 300 students and faculty. Two classes were selected prior to the first performance to serve as a study group. These classes received one period of instruction prior to each performance. The purpose of this was to prepare a small group of students before each performance so that they would be able to view the production with a more discriminating eye.

Each program was enthusiastically received by all who attended. For many, it represented the first time that they had been exposed to programs such as these. The Lincoln Center for The Performing Arts Student Program was the highlight of 1970-1971 at Roosevelt.
